

Nicholas County Farmers Market Policies and Procedures Selling Season 2006

- All participants must be a grower.
- Market is open to all who would like to sell.
- Market will be open at 8 a.m. on Saturday May 13, old Jockey Sewing Plant parking lot on Concrete Rd. and 1 weekday.
- The Nicholas County Farmers Market Board of Directors governs rules and regulations of market.
- Fruits and vegetables can be purchased as long as it is a 70% you grow and 30% purchase. Must use labeling of “Homegrown” – YOU grew it.
 - “Local” – Grown in the state of Kentucky
 - “Fresh” – Grown anywhere else
- Spaces for selling are on a first come first serve basis.
- To sell items growers MUST meet all state regulations to sell items at farmers market. (HB391 and micro-processing items)
- All items that are not farm and agriculturally produced it must be passed through the Nicholas County Board of Directors to be able to sell that the Nicholas County Farmers Market.
- There can be NO price gauging between sellers. Minimum Prices are set for Premium, Standard, and Chopper and Canner produce.
- All sellers must complete an application and pay dues before selling at the Nicholas County Farmers Market.
- Dues are $15, however if paid before June 1 will receive a $5 discount. (This is subject to change.)
- It is mandatory that all sellers attend two Nicholas County Farmers Market meetings per year.
- The Nicholas County Farmers Market Board will meet on the third Thursday of each month at 6:30 p.m.
- If a producer is found to be in violation of the Nicholas County Farmers Market Board Policies and Procedures; one oral and written warning will be sent via certified mail by the Nicholas County Farmer’s Market Board Officers. A second violation of Policies and Procedures of the Nicholas County Farmers Market Board will result in a second oral and written warning sent via certified mail by the Nicholas County Farmers Market Board and loss of selling privileges.